Last Updated: April 10, 2025

WELCOME!

Before using the An-ı Hü application ("Application"), please read the following terms of use ("Terms") carefully. This Application is developed and provided by [Umut Hakan DEMİR] ("We", "Us", "Our"). By downloading, installing, or using the Application, you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree with these Terms, please do not use the Application or remove it from your device.

1. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND CONDITIONS

1.1 Scope:

These Terms apply to all users of the An-ı Hü Application and govern your rights, obligations, and limitations regarding the use of the Application.

1.2 Modifications:

We reserve the right to modify, update, or revise these Terms at any time without prior notice. Updated Terms will take effect upon their publication in the Application or otherwise. Your continued use of the Application constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

1.3 No Age Restriction for Use:

An-ı Hü is an application designed to provide prayer time reminders and religious information, and as such, it can be used by individuals of all ages without any age restrictions. However, advertisements displayed in the Application are provided through the Google AdMob platform and are determined by third-party ad providers. We have no control over the content, type, or appropriateness of these advertisements. We are not legally or financially liable for any emotional distress, discomfort, or inappropriate situations that may arise from advertisement content. Users acknowledge that ad content may not align with their values or expectations and assume all risks associated with exposure to such content. This provision is supported by Sections 3.2 (Ad Content) and 4.1 (Legal Liability) of these Terms.

2. PURPOSE AND LIMITATIONS OF THE APPLICATION

2.1 Purpose:

An-ı Hü is a mobile application designed to provide users with features such as prayer time reminders, qibla direction determination, and religious information. However, the Application is solely a supportive tool and not a definitive guide for fulfilling religious obligations.

2.2 Accuracy of Prayer Times:

Prayer times are calculated based on your geographic location and chosen calculation methods, providing approximate values. These times may not align perfectly with local authorities or official sources. We do not guarantee the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of prayer times. Users are responsible for verifying prayer times with official sources or local mosques.

2.3 Qibla Finder:

The qibla direction is determined based on your device's magnetic sensors, GPS data, and environmental conditions (e.g., magnetic interference, metal objects, building structures). Therefore, the accuracy of the qibla direction depends on your device's sensor quality and usage environment. We do not guarantee the precise accuracy of the qibla finder and recommend cross-checking with your own observations.

2.4 Technical Limitations:

The Application's functionality depends on your device's internet connection, battery status, operating system version, and other technical specifications. We are not responsible for disruptions or errors caused by these factors.

3. ADVERTISEMENTS AND GOOGLE ADMOB

3.1 Presence of Ads:

An-ı Hü is offered as a free application, funded by advertisements provided through the Google AdMob platform. Ads displayed in the Application are served by third-party ad providers.

3.2 Ad Content:

The content, type, frequency, and appropriateness of advertisements are entirely controlled by Google AdMob. We have no direct control over ad content and do not guarantee that such content will align with users' expectations or values. We are not responsible for encountering inappropriate, misleading, or offensive ads.

3.3 Third-Party Websites:

Ads may redirect users to third-party websites or applications. We have no control over the content, security, or legality of these sites. We are not responsible for transactions (e.g., purchases, subscriptions, downloads) or damages caused by third-party sites.
